DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 10-13,15 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jackman. Jackman shows the use of a storage compartment comprising a concave surface (68) attached at its periphery to a rear surface of a (footrest) panel (56) of a chair (10) and a flap (70) attached to an upper surface of the panel via releasable attachment means (80,82). The storage compartment inherently would comfortably accommodate a woman's breast.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 14,16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jackman. Jackman shows all of the teachings of the claimed invention except the use of a flexible fabric that is made from natural fibers, or which is resilient and whereby the flap and main body are stitched directly to the panel. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to modify the flexible fabric from natural fibers which is resilient and allow the both the storage compartment and flap to be stitched to directly to the panel since applicant has not disclosed that flexible fabric made from natural fibers and that having the flap and storage compartment stitched to the panel solves any stated problem and it appears that the storage compartment, as taught by Jackman would perform equally well.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Reference Nos. 6,934,988, 6,857,145, 6,588,034, and 5,029,349 show features of the claimed invention.
